

How can you help your child at home?

Counting in 1s, 2s, 5s, 10s and 3s as your child progresses.

Make use of opportunities for your child to weigh and measure.

Count, add and subtract numbers of objects, applying skills learnt at school.

Ask your child to tell you the time.

Handling different denominations of money.

Help your child with their maths homework.